

Days or Decades?

We fall victim to the illusion of infinite time.

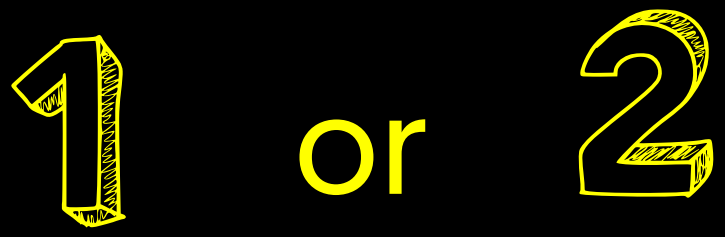

Time deceives us with the false promise of endless tomorrows.

So we neglect duties, let relationships decay, allow dreams to dissolve…

As moments pass, so do opportunities, leaving behind a burden of regret.

Now is the time to seize the present,
clutch your enhavim tightly, and act,
because tomorrow is not promised to anyone.

WHICH GROUP ARE YOU IN?

Many people in the first group settle into a comfortable routine and hesitate to make big changes.

Others in their Masterwork Years take charge, investing in personal growth, professional pursuits, and business ventures.

Circumstances and mindsets vary.
You know which group you're in.

UP FOR CHANGE?
or, STICKING WITH COMFORT?

Is your life "looping"? Repeating the same patterns and routines over and over? It's time to disrupt the status quo. Break free from limitations holding you back and access the power of designing the decade ahead.

So, picture this: a decade with intentionality, purpose, and a clear vision to guide you. Your days have meaning, and your endeavors reflect your enhavim (defined next page).

BUT you're too busy, right?

Who has time to deal with the parts of our lives we have avoided or put off? Plus, the responsibility of follow-through can feel daunting, because it takes consistent effort and dedication (read: too much work).

DO YOU NEED GLASSES FOR YOUR ENHAVIM?

Imagine uncovering your blind spots, gaining new perspectives, and seeing your full potential. What if a roadmap for your future could align with your values, passions, and aspirations? Yes, you, my 50-ish (and older) friend.

Enhavim is purpose and mission led by vision: a clear vision that is fueled by purpose and fulfilled by mission. It sets your sights and opens your imagination at any stage, any age.

The possibilities are many, and the choice is yours. Will you design your decade ahead with intention?

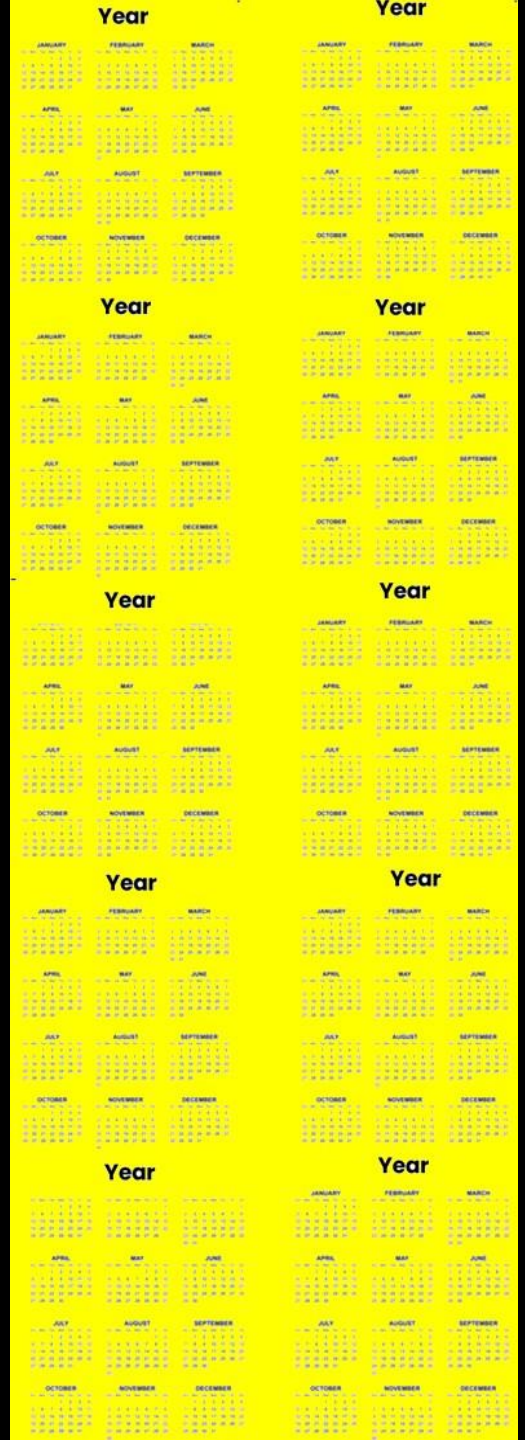

Daring souls are invited to design the next decade of their life.

Courage and creativity required.

Challenges aplenty, guarantees scarce.

Success brings honor and fulfillment.

Activate Your DI
(Decade Intelligence)

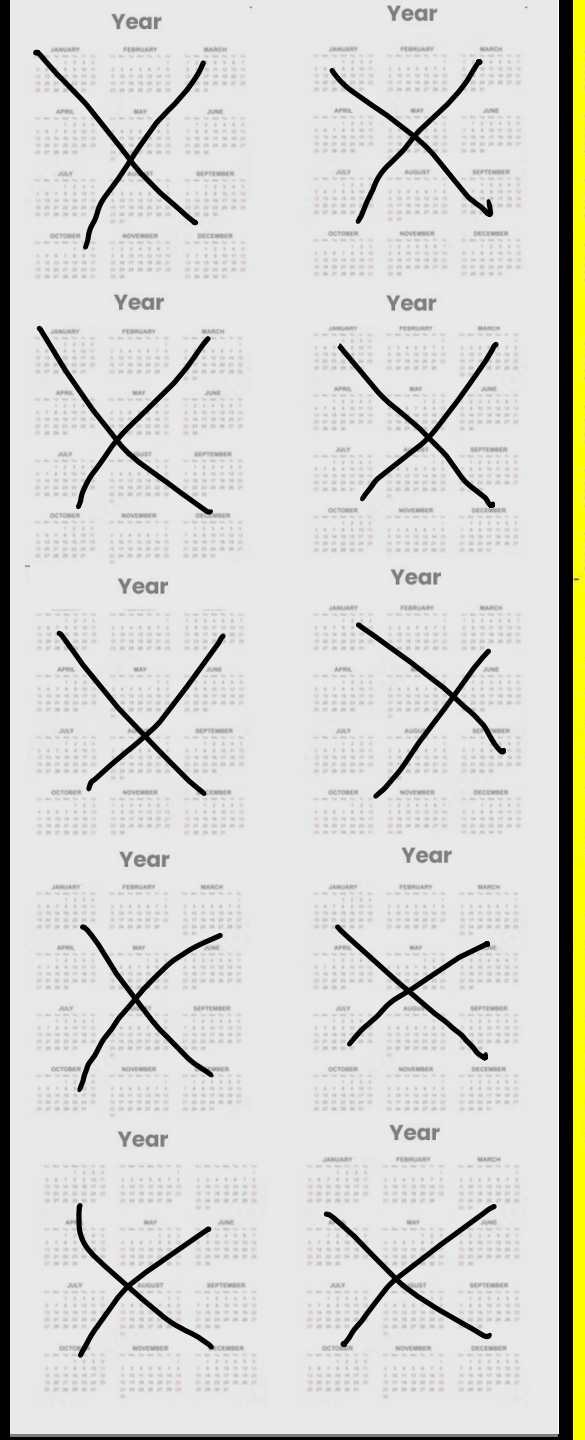

Masterwork360 begins with an invitation. Request yours to see if we're a good match.

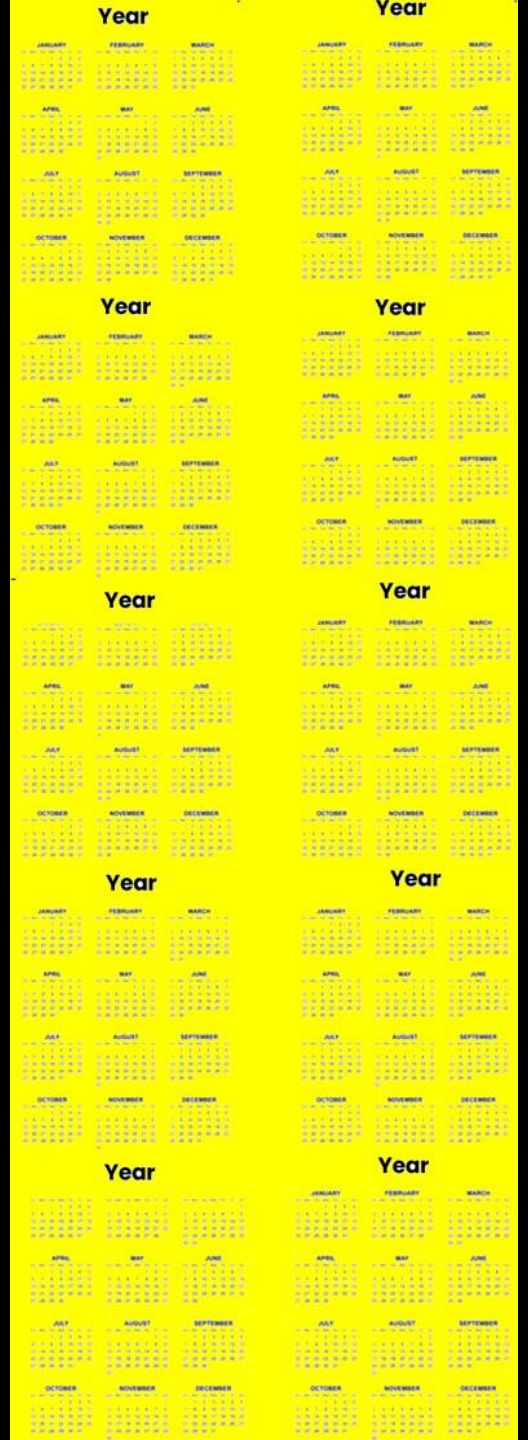

The DI Designer, with Decade Intelligence built in, guides you through the next 10 years with specific strategies for each year. You start by setting a strong foundation in year one. From there you navigate transitions, foster balance, and sustain momentum in the years that follow. We provide practical tools and exercises to keep you on track toward your enhavim and rightful destiny.

DI, Decade Intelligence: seeing your life in decades and making decisions with that long view in mind.

DID, Decade Intelligence Design: the practice of designing the next ten years with DI, one year at a time.

DI Designer: the guide that walks you through DID, with specific strategies for each year of the decade.

(Decade Intelligence Designer)

Make a change now, or the next decade will look like the last: a decade lived without Decade Intelligence (how depressing!)

DI, Decade Intelligence, takes the long view, envisioning the future with the care you would give to preparing a royal banquet.

Set up the DI Designer to stay ahead of neglect, decay, and regret. Regret often follows what we leave undone. Do yourself a favor and click or tap the button:

HARNESS THE POWER OF 10

1 Strategic Fusion
Foresight and intention join aspirations to actionable plans.

2 Opportunity Amp
Groundwork and anticipation amplify breakthroughs.

3 Decision Dynamo
Foresight and analysis guide informed choices toward your desired outcomes.

4 Innovation Circuit
Innovation enters daily life and sparks progress and growth with ease.

5 Resource Conductor
Time, energy, and resources combine in pursuit of your enhavim.

6 Vitality Generator
Health and wellness come first, sustaining your energy and life.

7 Momentum Relay
Incremental progress passes energy from one year to the next, advancing personal and professional growth.

8 Calm Regulator
Structure and preparation bring peace of mind and resilience.

9 Legacy Linkage
Connections leave a lasting imprint that benefits future generations.

10 Wisdom Wattage
Accumulated knowledge illuminates insight throughout the decade.

P.S. For Daring Souls with Courage and Creativity who want Ten Tremendous Years! Planning long-term can be tricky, and transformation can be uncomfortable because it requires commitment. There is also the confronting of aspects of our lives that we may have avoided or suppressed and simply don't want to deal with, but know we should.

The decade holds power. In the book The Road Ahead, Bill Gates paraphrased computer scientist Roy Amara: we overestimate the change of the next two years and underestimate the change of the next ten. Now is the time to design your decades and claim your right.

The follow-through on a long-term plan can feel daunting, because it requires consistent effort and dedication. In a group setting, in person or online, like a mastermind program, adds accountability and lessens procrastination. We seize the present, act decisively to design the next 10 years, and embrace our future, because tomorrow is not guaranteed.

P.P.S.
Do you see yourself here?

You are a founder, executive, professional, consultant, or investor with decades of achievement behind you. Before the big decisions, people have long come to you. You know more than you have ever had time to share, and you are excited and ready for what comes next.

If that sounds like you, request an invitation.
